

THE CHURCH ARMY RULE OF LIFE

Church Army Evangelists are members of an Anglican Society which exists to win people for Jesus Christ by making the love of God as revealed in Him known and accepted. They accept the Society's principles of conversion, consecration and church membership and endeavour to observe the following Rule of Life.

To do the work of an evangelist in the power of the Holy Spirit, caring for people by words and action.

To order their lives after the example of Christ, and to allow nothing in their personal relationships and behaviour, which would hinder them in making God's love real to other people.

To maintain a personal rule about spiritual discipline and devotion and the stewardship of time and money.

To undertake such study as will increase their understanding of the message of God to the people and situations to which they are sent.

To be loyal members of the Anglican Church and to work for Christian unity.

To work and pray for the effectiveness of Church Army as a whole, and to promote sound relationships with fellow-workers
